University City Community Association Sponsors An Important Political Forum

Circle Wednesday, October 8th, and join your neighbors to learn more about the two candidates running for 1st District City Council positions. Who will replace Council President Scott Peters? What are the candidates' stands on issues important to you, your family, and your community? Sherri Lightner and Phil Thalheimer will answer your concerns and questions during the political forum scheduled from 6:30 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. UCCA has tentatively scheduled University City High School auditorium for this important event.

Learn more about each candidate by going to their websites: www.sherrilightner.org and www.philthalheimer.com.

The format of the evening will be similar to the one UCCA featured at the city attorney political forum in May. Audience members will write out questions that will be collected and grouped according to topic for a moderator to pose to the candidates.

University City residents have seen many changes influenced by City Hall. It is incumbent upon each voter to be informed, and UCCA is happy to make this opportunity available for you. We want to thank the candidates in advance for joining us.

President's Report Andy Freeburn, President University City Community Association

Riding high in UC! We've just completed a summer full of events unmatched by any other community in the county.

Kicking off the summer was the fantastic 20th annual UC Celebration. After the Fourth of July, Standley Park hosted a concert on the remaining Sundays until Labor Day. If that wasn't enough, our unique Banana Split day in the park brought young and old out in masses. At least 75 gallons of ice cream were scooped out in under an hour.

Coming soon to Standley Recreation Center will be the Halloween party, Tree lighting ceremony, and breakfast with Santa.

Many of these events would not be possible without committed residents volunteering their time and effort to leading the way in such activities.

Although financial resources are necessary to enact some events, most only require a few to get the ball rolling. However, without replenishing the troops, our community is beginning to lose many of the leaders who see no reason to go it alone.

I'm making a call to arms for residents to get involved beyond financial contributions. I realize many families with small children are unable to participate much but University City does have a sizeable amount of active retirees who could provide meaningful assistance with a social benefit.

The gateway to involvement is to attend the University City Community Association meetings held on the second Wednesday of each month at the Library on Governor Drive at 6:00 p.m. Please join us September 10 with any ideas you may have to improve UC.

Additionally, you may e-mail me at Andy@adreamhomeandloan.com with your thoughts.

Sincerely, Andy Freeburn President
University City Community Association

Way to go UC All Stars!

By Dawn Yandel UCLL President

On July 10, 2008, the University City Little League 11-12 All Star team won the District 32 Championship on our home field by defeating Scripps Ranch National 9 – 8. The team played well the entire game and Scripps Ranch National went on a run to tie things up in the 6th inning. UC would not be denied and came through with the winning run in the bottom of the 6th to win.

The team was 4 – 1 in tournament play. They moved on to the Section 6 tournament hosted by District 70 – Vista National Little League on July 12, 2008.

UC Celebration most memorable yet!

By: Andy Freeburn

WOW! What an epic undertaking. That's how a first time volunteer summed up this year's Fourth of July Celebration. In all my years as chairman, I'd have to agree that this was the most successful in the sense that we had a variety of events and activities which flowed seamlessly.

There was something for everyone with the usual emphasis on children and families. Starting the day off was the 5 K race, a pancake breakfast, and a bike parade. After opening ceremonies, we had field games, pony rides, dunk tank, astro jump, a monkey bridge, robotics demonstrations and a photo scavenger hunt.

The day's entertainment brought Hawaiian dancing, martial art exhibits, a barber shop quartet, a folk singer, and The Stingrays! There were almost 50 food and craft booths including our Beer Garden and Book Barn.

A unique feature this year was the impromptu fire fighting demonstration by the San Diego Fire Department in the canyon behind the park, complete with a 375 gallon water drop from Copter 1.

With balloon artists, face painting, open swimming, and The Old Town Trolley we accomplished the quintessential Norman Rockwell picture of a perfect town festival.

I wish to thank our major sponsor,

Time-Warner Cable and the many businesses and individuals who donated gifts and prizes.

All could not have been accomplished without the wonderful efforts of our Standley Park Recreation personnel, the tireless participation of the University City First Baptist Church, and the small group of dedicated residents who make up the planning committee.

I appreciate all your efforts in making the 20th UC Celebration the one to remember. That is, until next year!

Manning the water station at the 5K race on the 4th.

Did You Know?...

...On July 29th, the City Council approved the Westfield's UTC expansion 7-1, with Council Member Donna Frye casting the dissenting vote...Westfield recently announced plans to renovate and expand the Mission Valley mall as well....

...UC has a new council representative. At the July UCPG meeting, Madeleine Baudoin, Council District 1 representative to University City announced she would be leaving Scott Peters' office at the end of July to take another position in San Diego. Madeleine devoted a lot of time and energy to her position as she interfaced with residents, groups and organizations throughout University City regarding their many questions, requests and needs. We extend our thanks and best wishes to Madeleine and welcome Jacob O'Neill our new council representative. Jacob also oversees all Constituent Services for Council District 1 and is the office liaison for military matters. To learn more about Jacob, visit the Council District 1 website: www.sandiego.gov/citycouncil/cd1/staff/oneill.shtml.

.. The San Diego Police Department has a program called You Are Not Alone (YANA). Volunteers from the Retired Senior Volunteer Patrol (RSVP) will arrange to check on elderly or disabled persons on a regular basis. To request this service, go to SDPD Northern Division, 4275 Eastgate Mall, Monday through Friday between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm or call (858) 522-1700... Another community service offered by the SDPD is Vacation House Checks. Either stop by or call the Northern Division as indicated above and arrange to have a volunteers from the Northern division conduct a security check on your home while you are away.

...If you still haven't set up your family disaster plan, you can download a plan and personal survival guide at www.sdcounty.ca.gov/oes/docs/FamilyDisasterPlan.pdf.

University City Photo Race Brings Together Cameras and Action!

By: James Floyd

Held as part of UC Celebration on the 4th of July, 2008, the first University City Photo Race attracted more than twenty teams to compete in the clue-solving photo scavenger hunt around the community, and thirteen teams successfully found all the clue checkpoints. The race started at high noon in front of the main stage at the neighborhood festival, with on-site registration going all morning.

The fastest teams didn't let the heat slow them down as they ran around UC and finished the race in just over a half hour, while other teams walked the course and finished in about an hour. At the start of the race, teams were given a sheet of ten clues. Each clue, when solved, would lead them to a location or item in University City, and the teams had to reach that location, and take a photograph of themselves there. At the awards ceremony, the top teams received prizes from the UC Celebration Committee. Here's one of the clues that the teams had to solve and then find in UC to take a photograph with:

Winners: Hannah, Jay, and Nick of "Team Sexy (plus some guy in a weird hat)"

For the answer to this clue, and to see all the clues and race results, go to:

<http://www.sdrocketrace.com/universitycityphotorace>

The University City Photo Race was sponsored by the UC Celebration Committee and designed and organized by San Diego Rocket Race, led by Dan Hamman and UC resident James Floyd.

The competitors at the starting line

The Photo Race got off to an auspicious start as the reviewing of the rules was interrupted by a canyon fire behind Standley Park. But the teams weren't distracted by the commotion and solved the clues that led them around University City. The top three teams were:

1. "Team Sexy (plus some guy in a weird hat)" - Hannah, Jay, and Nick
2. "JKM Productions" - Jake and Joshua
3. "Purple Ninja Pickles" - Nina, Or, Alec, and Christy

He was an admiral and ambassador to the Soviet Union, but most UC residents are more familiar with the school that is named for him. Take a picture with the sign that lists his middle initial, "H".

Stagehands Help Make Sunday Summer Concerts A Success

The Sunday Summer Concerts at Standley Park drew large crowds and talented bands. Without the help of the stage crew that put the stage up piece by piece and broke down the stage after the concerts, U.C. would have missed out on the music.

Pony rides for the kids were a big hit!

UC Celebration BIKE PARADE 2008

By: Barbara Henshaw

The 2008 UC Celebration hosted its annual Children's Bike Parade again this year. The parade was a huge success. The parade was joined by the Standley Middle School's Marching band leading us down the street to the festivities in the park. Each child who had decorated their bike was given a shiny medal on a red/white and blue ribbon to wear in the parade. We had over 100 participants riding their bikes and scooters and a few smaller ones being pushed or pulled behind the Standley marching band playing patriotic music. It was great fun!

Barry Bernstein and several parents are hoping to have a real parade down Governor Drive in 2009. So if you are interested in helping us plan for next year, please call Barry (858) 453-3713 or Barbara (858) 552-8978. Our first meeting will be held at 5:30pm at the UC library on September 10th. Hope to see you, your friends and your ideas there.

The Yandel Family would like to extend a BIG THANK YOU to the UC community for the wonderful outpouring of love and support to our family during this difficult time.
Our UC FAMILY has been very giving of themselves to our family.
We are very thankful and appreciative to all.
Larry, Dawn, Ryan, Matthew and Kaitlin Yandel

Collaging and Scrapbooking Your Faith

September 6th sees the Good Samaritan Women's Group gathering to learn how to use scrapbooking and collaging to more deeply explore and explain their faith.

The latest resurgence in scrapbooking started in the 80's with women who wanted to pass along family stories and stories about their faith to their children and grandchildren. The current array of options can be confusing, so we'll be discussing the basics as well as ideas on what to "scrap".

Collaging is an old folk art that is almost always made for private use and pleasure and rarely displayed. Collages are created out of whatever material is at hand -- photographs, stamps, and illustrations, pictures or text from printed media. First a question or theme is chosen; then the images are collected and organized as desired. Once assembled, the artist interprets her collage.

Together, we'll complete two small projects -- one scrapbooking, one collaging, that can be either stand-alone or be incorporated into a scrapbook page.

Bring along the following: scissors (also a paper trimmer if you have one), black or brown archival pen (e.g., the Zig Writer), adhesive (acid-free - some glue sticks are ok) and a bible. If you're a scrapbooker, feel free to bring along any additional supplies that you think you might need. Old magazines to cut up are also welcomed.

Please RSVP to Mary Anne Wolfe at sandiegowolfe@aol.com and 858-546-0617

EdUCate! Dollar-a-Day Program

By: Marge Lorang

EdUCate! The University City Foundation for Public Schools is a non-profit foundation that raises funds to improve the five public schools in the University City neighborhood. With a successful 2008-09 school year, EdUCate! hopes to pass the $1,000,000 milestone in donations to our fine teachers.

We are asking you to donate to our Dollar-a-Day campaign before January 1, 2009 because we have a matching grant for the first $10,000 in donations. If you don't donate, we don't get that extra $10,000.

The Dollar-a-Day program has generated over $77,000 in donations in its two years of existence. This amount was raised, even though fewer than 10% of students' families participated. If all UC student families participate in Dollar a Day, we can put up to $500,000 into our schools each year!

Dollar-a-Day contributions have equipped more than 80 UC classrooms with state-of-the-art document cameras and digital projectors. 2008-09 Dollar-a-Day contributions will provide laptop computers to teachers at all five schools. The laptops will help teachers to use the document cameras and digital projectors to their full potential.

EdUCate! suggests a donation of $1 per calendar or school day but please give what you can, even if it's a dollar a week. You can donate online, making automatic monthly payments if that's easiest. Our web site is <http://www.uc-educate.org/>. You can mail us a check. You can even give us cash -- ask at your school.

University City
Community Association

...more than a neighborhood.

By: Mila Cridlig

University City site... more than a site!

It has been about 2 months since the 17th of June when our new community site www.ucca-news.org went online.

By mid August, 441 visitors checked out the site. That is more than 7 a day, far from the unique visitor per day of the previous site! Twenty-six percent of those visitors are returning visitors, that is, visitors who have previously visited the website. An image being worth a thousand words, please, see the graphs here below and... be that special 500th visitor!

For the geeks, the most frequently used U.C. community screen resolution, operating system and web browser are respectively 1024x768, Windows XP and Internet Explorer 6.x.

Many thanks to Sarah Anderson, the Standley Recreation center director, who sent the pictures and the information on the recreation related pages at <http://www.ucca-news.org/recreation.html>; to Connie and Matthew K. Wuest for the very first picture sent by U.C. residents and published on the site; to Chris Hearn for sending over the link <http://www.fbcSD.com> to the site of the First Baptist Church; to Faedra Sick who sent a classified; to Sandy Lippe for taking great pictures of the 4th of July Celebration; to Sandy Lippe again and Terri Day for chasing some typos (like lightning in... Christmas tree lighting!)

There have been though less contributions in 2 months with the new than with the previous Internet site, may be because of the hot Summer months or... the new richer interface which may appear intimidating with its 51 large, colorful pages.

Again, to contact us, you can use the Contact us page or use the following e-mail addresses: president@ucca-news.org to contact the UCCA president, editor@ucca-news.org to contact the UCCA newsletter editor, advertising@ucca-news.org, to advertise in the UCCA newsletter and on the UCCA Internet site, distribution@ucca-news.org to help with the newsletter distribution and webmaster@ucca-news.org to contact the UCCA site webmaster. Please, let's us know what we can do better and rate the Internet site at <http://www.ucca-news.org/rate.html>.

Thanks as well for voting. 83% think Swanson pool should stay open year round and 17% - it should close 3 months. For now, the Will Faerber Band has got 59% of the votes. Please, continue to vote.

The UCCA site is updated monthly in regard to the community newsletter, plus on an as needed basis (news, events, pictures). Please, tell us more about your school, day-care, library, church, business, etc. We will publish it as information for the community. This site is a community Internet site.

Thank you for caring, University City!

University City United Church of Christ

Some of University City's most talented residents will showcase their musical gifts from 4 to 6 p.m. on Saturday, September 27 in a '60s music concert benefiting the church's organ fund. Church members bid over $2,700 for the cause, nominating their top 20 tunes which will be played by members of the church, choir and community.

This festive celebration of the 1960s will be held in the church sanctuary and will include sing-along tunes, '60s attire and refreshments. Among the musicians and singers featured will be Steve and Janet Shields, Pat Cox, Heidi Woodworth, Brad Spitz, Dave Kempton, Dena and Chris Hause, Joyce Langenbacher, Jon Derryberry, Jim Hibert, Lisa Stofen, choir director Jeanne Stutzer and members of the youth band.

Songs will include "Blowin' in the Wind," "Good Vibrations," "The Lion Sleeps Tonight," "Annie's Song," "Joy to the World" and "Let It Be." All members of the community are invited to join in the fun and support their friends and neighbors in what promises to be a memorable evening. There is no charge to attend, but donations to the organ fund will be gladly accepted.

For more information, call UCUC at (858) 453-3444. The church is located at 2877 Governor Drive. Christie Ritter, Publicity Chair
