

UCHS Centurion Foundation welcomes parents and students to the following free program:

YOUR HEAD IN THE GAME

- Hear about concussion protocol currently practiced at UCHS based on District guidelines
- Learn about the supporting research from someone who is deeply passionate about this subject and has performed her own research, UCHS Athletic Trainer Kimberly Phillips
- Listen to a former high school athlete, Branden Ivy, speak about his own experience playing without the benefit of the current guidelines
- Share your own experience so others may benefit
