

Death Café

Death Café Mission Valley, San Diego provides a safe, agenda-free place to discuss death and life over some tasty treats. Not a grief therapy group, it is no more and no less than a friendly and interesting group of people discussing death, dying and end of life concerns. Our motto: "Breathing Life Into Death"

Wednesday, September 21, 2016
12:00pm to 2:00pm
Mission Valley Public Library
Community Room
2123 Fenton Pkwy,
San Diego, CA 92108
Thank you to the San Diego County Coalition for Improving End-of-Life Care & Mission Valley Library for hosting this event!

Anyone is Welcome. It's for ages 18+, families, friends and co-workers. Bring an open mind, an open heart, and your curiosity.
PLEASE RSVP - If you'd like to attend using our Eventbrite link below:
https://www.eventbrite.com/e/death-cafe-mission-valley-hosted-by-sdcceolc-mission-valley-library-tickets-26489110643
Death Cafés have filled up in the past, so an rsvp is advised. The Library's Community Room can be a bit cool or cold, so keep this in mind.
Donations are welcome and appreciated to help defray the cost of refreshments.
Learn more about Death Café at:
www.facebook.com/DeathCafeS www.facebook.com/DeathCafeSanDiego or www.deathcafe.com