

Statement by Louis Rodolico for UCPG Board Seat R1-A, November 2021

Education: Associate Degree, Drafting and Design Technology, Penn State University, Abington, Pennsylvania 1971

President Society of American Military Engineers, Graduated Tau Alpha Phi.

Bachelors of Architecture, Penn State University, State College, Pennsylvania 1976

Thesis: Real 3-D Imaging Systems, View-Master Presentation and View-Master Portfolio

Work College Years: Tutored Structures and Mathematics, sold my pointillist art and worked as a laborer/carpenter in the summer for Architects.

After Graduation from Architecture: 4 Years working for contractors and finish carpenters. First Architect Employer 1980: Robert Venturi-4 years. After that worked mostly in medical until I retired in 2016.

Community: Philadelphia: Coached 13-14 age baseball 7 years, Frankford United Neighbors CDC, YWCA Treasurer, Community advocate for safer intersections.

San Diego: Assisted baseball coaches, member UCPG and UCCA, VP UC Fire safe Council, also Public Safety Advocate. Build homes for Homes of Hope. About 50 published articles I am considered an Environmental Journalist, including the human environment. Two unsuccessful runs for City Council, three for UCPG.

Correction to Governor & Genesee

Intersection: http://www.louisrodolico.com/uploads/7/5/2/2/75221087/collisions-at-governor-genesee-cut-branches_orig.jpg

Advocate for Companion

Units: https://issuu.com/lajollalight2010/docs/la_jolla_light_09.14.17

22

Go to Page

Moved to San Diego 2001, Married with 2 kids currently in college.

Hobbies: Carpentry projects, guitar, gardening, fixing cars & doing most of the improvements to our house.